

Have you been charged with a Criminal Offence?

Have you been denied Legal Aid?

I CAN HELP!

My name is Connie Morrisey. I am the Native Courtworker for Fort St James, Vanderhoof, Fraser Lake and Burns Lake Court Circuit and have been serving these Communities for almost 13 years

There is no charge for my services

- I am not a lawyer so I cannot give legal advice but I can explain the Criminal Court Process and the different options that might be available to you
- I can help fill out legal paperwork pertaining to BC Criminal Court forms such as Application to a Judge (to vary Bail or Probation Orders), Request for a Waiver, Application to Change Time to Pay (court fines) etc.
- I can speak to Crown Counsel on your behalf re: alternate sentence resolutions, stay of proceedings based on you completing certain agreed upon conditions, requesting alternative measures, pleading guilty to a lesser/included charge for a lesser sentence, or setting dates for a trial. I can also attend court on your behalf if you are unable to attend IF YOU STAY IN CONTACT WITH ME

I will be attending the Natural Resources Building in T'lat'zen Community once a month on the second Thursday of the month from 10am-2pm weather permitting

If you have any charges under the Motor Vehicle Act or the Canadian Criminal Code that you would like assistance with please text or call me at 250-793-8327

I CANNOT ASSIST WITH FAMILY OR CIVIL MATTERS
